

Adoptions Counselor (Full-Time)

Cat Depot, a free roaming cat rescue, medical, and adoption center seeks a mature, compassionate, nonjudgmental individual with strong behavioral knowledge of cats, to match cats to their best home based on mutual needs and goals of adopters.

This position requires polish, professionalism, a positive personality and the ability to read people and analyze situations, along with strong verbal and written skills, and being computer savvy.

Must be adept at interviewing and working with all types of personalities across various socio-economic backgrounds, able to self-educate, and able to educate the public in resolving cat behavior and husbandry problems. Should also be able to give tours, encourage donations to the organization, discuss other Cat Depot services and provide exceptional follow-up and customer service.

The ideal candidate is flexible to work evenings, weekends, and off-site events, follows protocols, is innovative, and embraces best practices and change.

College degree preferred but will consider high school diploma and experience in lieu of degree. Fear Free certification, and knowledge of ShelterLuv and MS Excel a plus. Cat Depot is a non-smoking facility.

Competitive wage and health benefits.

Please email resume with cover letter to larrym@catdepot.org.

Check us out at www.catdepot.org!