

Tired of wrestling big dogs? We have the purrrrfect solution!

Cat Depot, a nonprofit, feline-only rescue and adoption center is seeking an experienced, fast-paced Veterinary Technician or CVT with a minimum of three years' experience for surgery, dentistry, client service, exam rooms, diagnostic services, medicating, and hospitalization care to work in our beautiful 11,000+ sq ft shelter and medical facility. Well equipped with digital x-ray, dental x-ray, ultrasound, Sedivue, cold laser, and more.

Share ideas and be part of building something special made of best quality medicine and supportive and compassionate care. This exciting, life changing opportunity requires a positive, self-motivated candidate who wants to make a difference.

Qualifications

- 3-4 years of technician experience in a progressive, fast paced veterinary clinic.
- Strong feline medicine and gentle, no scruffing handling skills.
- Ability to work flexible hours, including some weekends.
- People person who enjoys educating cat parents, adopters, and other support staff.
- A leader in your field.
- Reliable, efficient, innovative, kind, energetic, and detail oriented.
- Possess high level of accuracy in fast-paced, multi-tasking situations.
- AVImark paperless, ShelterLuv, and fear free certification a plus!

Enjoy coming to work every day with two experienced, personable veterinarians who love teaching and building a great team, nurses and support staff who are committed to cats and each other, and a Cat Depot group of professionals who love this special experience! Cat Depot offers competitive pay based on experience and skill, with health benefits, and growth potential.

If this is you, job happiness, competitive salary, healthcare and other benefits await!

Email cover letter and resume to: larrym@catdepot.org with subject line "Veterinary Technician".

To learn more about Cat Depot, visit us at www.catdepot.org.